What we will cover:

How Hiring Really Works

When a job is posted online, 5 steps have already been taken by the company to get qualified candidates. Learn why you need to stop applying online & what to do instead.

Networking to Achieve Success

Networking is the most important skill to have throughout your career. Learn how to build a valuable network from scratch. No matter who you encounter, you'll know what to say, when to say it and how to communicate to achieve your goal.

Overcoming Rejection

Rejection is inevitable. We show you how to lean into the process so you can overcome it and move forward with your goals! "If you ask 100 people out on a date and 99 say no, you have a date!"
